Prudential Vice President Joseph M. Savage breaks ground for the building at Tenth Street and Route 51 that will house Prudential's Hobart office. Flanking him are Mayor Lilburn J. Titus (on the left in photo) and Edward P. Donovan, the general contractor. Also on hand were A. F. (Pete) Harrigan, of Harrigan Real Estate (left), and Prudential's George H. Wilcox, who will be manager of the new office. Mr. Savage used a chrome-plated shovel that saw similar duty at the ground breaking for the Prudential Building in 1952.

- On March 13, 1964, Hobart merchants offered special sale prices in a Lucky Friday 13th Coupon sale. Included in the bargains were mens argyle socks for 13 cents a pair at Schultz Bros; two shiny quarters toward each load of dry cleaning at Norge Village of Hobart; 50% discount on any Elgin, Hamilton or Bulova watch at The Jewel Shop; and a chrome music stand for $2.99 at Hobart Harmony House. All only with coupons from The Hobart Herald, and only on Friday, March 13.
- In March, 1964, members of the Hobart Presbyterian Womens Association observed Fellowship of The Least Coin, a worldwide Presbyterian project with the group to contribute the least coin of her country. Mrs. Floyd Jones was chairman of the group clothing drive for overseas distribution.
- March 4, 1964 was the date of the Izaak Walton Lakewood Chapter style show and card party, Spring in Bloom. Mrs. Richard Swallow, Mrs. Charles Watson and Mrs. Burke Talmadge were in charge with Mrs. Clayton Keilman, Miss Sherry Jackson, Mrs. Elmer Tandegren, Mrs. Clifton Adelman, Mrs. William Cope, Mrs. John Planski, Mrs. Harvey Mosher and Miss Linda Hippy modeling clothing from the Hobart LaMode Shop. Richard Swallow, William Cope, Tom Williams, Chester Haas and John Sheptak modeled clothing from Joys Mens Store of Hobart.

- Appointment of an assistant superintendent was delayed in 1964 until after the May primary when a proposed reorganization plan was to be voted on. It was the first of several proposals turned down before Hobart was reorganized alone as a district. Assistant Supt. Kenneth Norris was moving up to replace Supt. Arley Kerr who retired July 31, 1964.
- Kerr announced 182 of the 196 teachers of 1964 desired to return for the 1964-65 year. New teachers hired for Sept., 1964 included Thomas Wuchner to teach German, French and math at the junior high; Harlow Fletcher, Liberty 6th grade; Mrs. Fletcher, Liberty 5th grade; and Claudia Lions, Mundell.

• Property owners along 14th Street discussed with Mayor Titus the possibility of extending Garfield and Linda Streets south of 14th Street. George Matthey and property owners south of 14th Street had dedicated the land for the streets. Titus said while that would prevent building on the land dedicated for streets, the dedication wouldn't be used until building permits were sought on lots fronting the proposed streets.

• The city plans discussed by Titus with the neighborhood included future widening of Wisconsin Street and 61st Avenue. He also said the city is investigating as incinerator or tt-pee type garbage disposal for when the city dump on Ridge Road is filled.

• Terri Curtis reported in her Brickie Sentinal Column in The Hobart Herald that Pat Shaw had his cast removed two months after breaking his foot in a misunderstanding with a skateboard.

• A free bicycle safety check was held at Ridge View School on October 21, sponsored by the West Hobart Civic Club. Hobart Police Sgt. Richard Raiza was in charge.

• Hobart hosted one of two Calumet area 19th annual IHSAA cross country sectional meets at Cressmoor Country Club Oct. 15.
